Dear Coyote Families,

Your child has been kindly invited to The Coyotes
2024 Chinese New Year celebration.

Our celebration will take place on February 9th, in our lovely classroom, and will start around 11:00.

The students hosting the celebration are planning to make lots of delicious traditional Chinese food, as well. The items on the menu include:

- Orange chicken
- White Rice
- Spring rolls
- Fortune cookies
- Oranges
- A traditional Chinese sticky cake
- Dumplings
- This meal also includes a pair of chopsticks.

The hosting students have also planned a whole bunch of activities, we will also play a couple of Chinese New Year related games, too.

As the year of the Dragon, we would be grateful for a 10 to 15 dollar donation to cover the cost of the meal, and any extra money will go to our expenses of caring for our animals.

Thank You for your support,

Danica and Claire

Our Play

Our play has been coming along swiftly, and beautifully. Currently, we are planning our props and closing in on our 12th rehearsal of the play. We have sent out our formal invite (check your E-Mail) to our performance, which will take place on Thursday, February 22.

Everybody in the Coyotes has done a fabulous job acting, and our amazing backstage are the only reason we have this great play.

COYOTE NEWS

Great Explorations

Last month all six graders have started algebra and have given the lessons to others and we have begun using text books and that is also how we do our algebra. We all think it is very interesting. Some of our younger friends are also interested in Algebra now and taking lessons.

TRIPS TO LIBRARY

The two trips to the library were fun. We got a bunch of information about Arizona history. The first trip the Ironwood library was not as interesting as the second trip to Burton Barr Library. That trip was super fun and we found so much stuff. That library has five floors and a teen section where many found exciting books. The elevators were really cool and it was definitely worth the drive!

LILLY AND SKYE

The birds just came back. They seem really happy being next to each other in separate cages. They have a lot of toys to play with, but like talking to each other more. They really enjoy it and we usually take them out, every other week so they can play with each other. And we take them out sometimes to get their wings clipped. When they are out of their cage, they like being together and they will talk for a long time. And they don't want to be seperated again.

LOOKING BACK AT WINTER

A Special Thanks

WONDERFUL WINTER MOMENTS

Dear parents,,

It is unbelievable how fast the holidays passed. The children planned so many wonderful projects, presentations and activities. On the last Day of School, Ms. Sydney and I were so humbled by your collective gifts that enabled us to invest in ourselves and the many needs of the classroom. We love all our coyote members and want to thank each and every one of you for your thoughtful gifts, notes, and ongoing support. We could not succeed without all your efforts, great and small!

Warmest regards,
Ms. Liza and Sydney
